Dear Mr. Hoffa:

I want to thank you most sincerely for the superb talk that you gave to the students in the Washington Semester program. No discussion that I have ever arranged has elicited so much favorable comment, both as to the material that was presented and the caliber of the speaker. It is no exaggeration to say that thirty-five students will return to their individual college campuses to spread the word, with almost missionary zeal, that neither the Teamsters Union nor its general president resembles remotely the picture that has been drawn in the press.

I appreciate greatly your willingness to talk with the students and the amount of time that you devoted to the meeting. The experience will not soon be forgotten, either by the students or by Mrs. Berman and me.

Most sincerely,

Daniel M. Berman

Dear Mr. Gibbons:

Once again this Fall, the staff of the Washington Semester Program is planning an informal occasion at which many of you, who have made such a vital contribution to the Program, may meet with the students. We hope you will be our guest at tea in the Congressional Room of the Willard Hotel on Friday, December 7, from four to six o'clock p.m.

If it will be possible for you to attend, would you kindly notify Dr. M. S. Preston at Sterling 3-4940, Extension 38. We look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoffa:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the appearance which Mr. Roy Barnes, of your organization, made before the Economics Club of The American University on October 30, 1963. We had more than 40 students and faculty members present to hear Mr. Barnes discuss "The Teamsters Union and its Critics". It was an interesting and exciting speech and the question and answer period was quite vigorous.

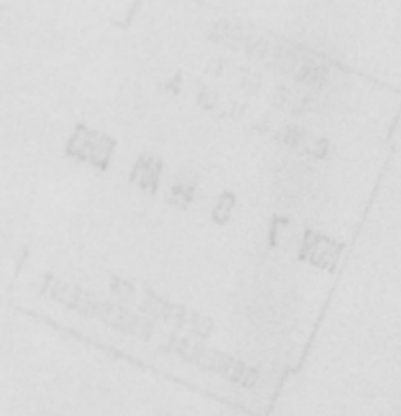

We do appreciate your having provided such a competent speaker and we look forward to further such opportunities.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Gibbons:

On behalf of the students in my unit of the Washington Semester Program, I would like to express my deep appreciation for your recent meeting with them.

The session was extremely interesting and informative, and I know that all of the students benefitted greatly from your presentation. Their appreciation was heightened greatly by your willingness to substitute for Mr. Zegri despite the unexpected nature of the situation.

Once again, thank you very much for your contribution to our program.

Dear Mr. Hoffa:

Kindly accept the thanks of the students of Unit III, the Washington Semester, The American University, and my own personal thanks as well, for meeting with us Tuesday afternoon and discussing with us the organization and functions of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters.

Your presentation gave us an entirely new outlook on certain vital segments of the American economy, government, and politics, and we all derived considerable benefit from it. You have made a substantial contribution to our program.

We realize you are a busy man and we appreciate your taking time out from a full schedule to speak to us. We were also glad to have Mr. Harold J. Gibbons, your Executive Assistant, and Mr. Edward T. Cheyfitz with us, and are grateful for the hospitality shown us by Miss Juanita Von Gunten and Mrs. Katherine Farrell, who escorted us on a tour of the building.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoffa:

For my students and myself, I extend our deepest appreciation for your hospitality and assistance to the Washington Semester Program. The seminar with you was a most valuable experience, shedding new light on the subject of labor union activities and problems and its role in the nation's economic life. The students gathered many insights from your comments and those of your associates at lunch.

Realizing the importance of time to a person of your position, your willingness to meet us is the more appreciated. The experience was such a thoroughly helpful one, I hope that seminars with you might be arranged in future semesters. Again, my profound thanks to you and to your colleagues in the Teamsters Union for a frank, stimulating and enlightening morning.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:

The American University Student Chapter of the Society for Advancement of Management would like you to schedule a talk by a representative of the Teamsters Union and a tour of the Teamsters building. I spoke with Mr. Rogers of your Public Relations Department and he suggested that I make this request to you.

The Student Chapter of S.A.M. is comprised of students who are majoring in the various fields of Business and Economics including Industrial Relations. The members have expressed an interest in paying a visit to your new building and having one of your representatives tell us about the functions of the Teamsters Union. We would like to arrange for approximately 30 students to tour your building. If this plan meets with your approval, the members could arrive about 1:00 p.m. Monday, March 26.

If there are any questions regarding this matter please contact Professor David Fields at W0adley 6-6800. SA 3-4940 after 2 pm

Thank you for your cooperation.
